Continued on Page 2
Minimum Qualifications:

- Understanding of addiction and recovery
- Accepted into an OSU graduate program
- Demonstrated strong communication and organizational skills
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- High level of comfort presenting to groups as well as working in a one-to-one environment
- Ability to work afternoons and evenings on a regular schedule
- Ability to work on program development & assessment
- Understanding of the role confidentiality and the importance of confidentiality within a health services environment

How to Apply:

Be prepared to submit:
1. A cover letter
2. A current resume/CV
3. Name and contact information for three references
4. Responses to the following questions:
   a. Please describe your current understanding of recovery (300 words or less)
   b. Please describe the need and importance of having support for students in recovery on a college campus (500 words or less)
   c. How would you work to reduce stigma related to addiction and recovery if in this position? (500 words or less)

The position is open until filled.

More Information:

For more information on the Collegiate Recovery Community at Oregon State University please visit: studenthealth.oregonstate.edu/recovery

OSU is committed to a culture of civility, respect, and inclusivity. As an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer, OSU values diversity in our faculty and staff regardless of their self-identity; to that end, we particularly encourage applications from members of historically underrepresented racial/ethnic groups, individuals with disabilities, veterans, women, LGBTQ community members, and others who share our vision of an inclusive community.

Robert C. Reff, Ph.D.
Director – Alcohol, Drug & Violence Prevention Center
Student Health Services
319 Plageman Building
Corvallis, OR 97331
Email: robert.reff@oregonstate.edu
Phone: (541) 737-7564