

Malinda Shell, MS

malinda.shell@oregonstate.edu

Health Educator at SHS since 1999

Educational Background

- B.A. in Speech Communication - Broadcast Media from Oregon State University, 1993
- M.S. in Exercise and Sports Science - Sports Management from Iowa State University, 1996
- Life Long Education Student from NC State University, 1997 - 1998
- Graduate student at Oregon State University, 1999 - present

Employment/Professional Background

- Health Promotion coordinator at Student Health Services, Oregon State University, 1999 - present
- Assistant director of Marketing and Publications Intramural-Recreational Sports, NC State University, 1996 - 1998
- Publicity coordinator - graduate assistantship position at Recreation Services, Iowa State University, 1993 - 1996

Areas of Expertise/Concentration:

- General Health and Wellness
- Sexual Health
- Stress Management
- Tobacco Cessation
- Health Coaching
- Journalism
- Photography
- Broadcast Media
- Marketing
- Desktop publishing
- Student personnel management
- Cultural competence / Diversity

Professional Membership and Involvement

- Student Affairs Professional Development Team
- Student Health Services Cross Cultural Awareness Committee
- Health & Wellness Work Group
- University Diversity Council
- Community to Diversity Task Force (C2D), Voices Project

- Student Media Committee
- Benton County Healthy Weight & Lifestyle Committee
- Benton County Tobacco Free Coalition

Interests

- Family
- Playing sports
- Oregon State Beavers
- Watching sports
- Traveling
- Outdoor activities
- Reading
- Watching movies
- Playing games
- Appreciating the arts